Interviews

Before the interviews, the selection panel will agree on the interview format. Selection process will be determined by the nature and duties of the vacant post, but all vacancies will require an interview of shortlisted candidates. Candidates invited to interview will receive a letter/email or telephone call confirming the day of the interview and the format for the day, who they will be meeting with. The questions asked during the interview will be aimed at obtaining evidence of how each candidate meets the requirement of the Job Description and the Person Specification and each candidate will be assessed against all of the criteria for the post. The same areas of questioning will be covered for each applicant and no questions which would discriminate directly or indirectly on protected characteristics under the Equality Act will be asked. The selection process for every post will include exploration of the candidate's understanding of child safeguarding issues.

Candidates will always be required:

- To explain satisfactorily any gaps in employment
- To explain satisfactorily any anomalies or discrepancies in the information available to the selection panel

A minimum of two references, one of which must be from the candidate's current/most recent employer will be required and details of referee is required on the application form. Candidates are entitled to see and receive copies of their employment references and should request these from their referees. Where a candidate supplies referees from the same employer, details of a third referee (preferably from a post involving work with children) will be requested from the candidate and/or contact will be made to a previous employer mentioned on the application form.

References will be sought directly from the referee and, where necessary, s/he will be contacted to clarify any anomalies or discrepancies. Copies of any such exchanges will be kept. Where necessary, previous employers who have not been named as referees may be contacted in order to clarify any such anomalies or discrepancies. Detailed written records will be kept of such exchanges.

If a candidate for a post working with children/Young Persons is not currently employed in a post working with children, a reference will be sought from the most recent employment in which the candidate has worked with children to confirm details of the candidate's employment and his/her reasons for leaving.

A standard reference pro-forma is used, which requires confirmation of:

- The referee's relationship to the candidate
- Details of the candidate's current/previous post and salary
- The candidate's performance history and conduct
- Whether the candidate has been subject to capability procedures and the outcome of this
- Whether the candidate has been subject to disciplinary action relating to the safety and welfare of children, including where the sanction has expired, and the outcome of this
- Details of any substantiated allegations or concerns about the candidate relating to the safety and welfare of children
- Whether the referee has any reservations as to the candidate's suitability to work with children and young people (if so, the centre will ask for specific details of the concerns and the reasons why the referee believes the candidate may be unsuitable to work with children)
- The candidate's suitability for the post with explicit reference to the job description and person specification.

All appointments are subject to satisfactory references, vetting procedures and satisfactory DBS checks. References are the "property" of the selection panel and strict confidentiality will be observed. References must be in writing and be specific to the job for which the candidate has applied. Additional character references may be requested in addition where a person is only able to provide one work related reference. References will be verified and any discrepancies or areas of potential concern will be discussed with the candidate at interview if provided prior to interview. If the field of applicants is felt to be weak, the post may be re-advertised.

Procedure for positive disclosure - DBS checks

Safeguarding at Green Sparks is of utmost importance. One of the pre-employment checks is an Enhanced DBS check. Green Sparks understands that judgment errors can be made in life and we look for positive changes and believe in rehabilitation. However we must ensure this is balanced against safety of our children and staff at the organisation. Where a positive disclosure is made, such disclosure will be dealt with on a case by case basis and full details should be supplied by the proposed new employee about any convictions/positive disclosure and the circumstances around that disclosure. Green Sparks will undertake further checks and make additional enquiries where it is felt further investigation is needed and seek guidance and support from other agencies, if required.

Due to the additional emotional needs of our learners, Green Sparks will not employ any persons with a positive disclosure in relation to GBH, ABH, Resisting arrest or any conviction in relation to harassment or aggressive behaviour.

Reference to the duties to be undertaken with the role, will be made, when making a decision on receipt of a positive disclosure and a record of the decision process will be kept on file for up to 6 months for those where the decision has been made not to continue with the offer of employment and up to 25 years for those taken into the employment of Green Sparks in accordance with our record keeping audit for staff members.

Start of Employment and Induction

The pre-employment checks listed above must be completed before the employee starts work. Exceptions will only be made in circumstances where a risk assessment has been undertaken. Exceptions will never be made in the case of the Barred List.

All new employees will be provided with an induction programme which will cover all relevant matters of policy including safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, child protection procedures, whistle blowing and guidance on safe working practices.

2.3 Aspects

Advertising

All vacant posts will be advertised to ensure equality of opportunity and encourage as wide a field of candidates as possible. This will normally mean placing an advertisement externally. However, where there are two or more internal applicants that wish to apply for a position, then the Centre may recruit directly from within. The same safer recruitment process will be followed.

All advertisements for posts, paid or unpaid, will include the following statements or words to the effect of: "Green Sparks are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and requires all staff and volunteers to share and demonstrate this commitment" "The successful candidate will have to meet the requirements of the person specification and will be subject to pre-employment checks, including an enhanced check from the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS check) and satisfactory references."

Volunteers

Volunteers who help on an occasional basis (e.g. trips/events) are supervised, in accordance with legislation.
